

ROBERSON MUSEUM AND SCIENCE CENTER

POSITION TITLE: Museum Science/Planetarium Educator

SUPERVISOR: Director of Education

BASIC ROLE: Teach seasonal and year-round planetarium and exhibit programs, engaging visitors of all ages in both school groups and the public.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES:

- Prepare for and master the material for the planetarium programs for which he/she is responsible
- Greet groups upon their arrival at the museum
- Set-up/clean up of lesson materials
- Deliver age appropriate and accessible program content
- Aid education department staff in curriculum development as needed
- Professionally represent the institution with a friendly, accessible and polite disposition to all visitors and staff
- Teach any educational programs as needed and scheduled, as well as in emergencies

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Demonstrated ability to manage or learn digital planetarium equipment
- Good communication and teaching skills, comfort teaching to all ages
- Self-motivated, positive attitude
- Currently studying or has received a Bachelor's degree or higher in Education, Museum Studies, Astronomy, Earth Science, Biological Sciences, Physical Sciences, or a directly related field - science experience preferred.
- Flexible availability - Tuesday through Sunday
- Knowledge of the night sky

MISCELLANEOUS:

- Hours vary based on programs scheduled

To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter to:

Christina Mack

Roberson Museum and Science Center

30 Front Street

Binghamton, NY 13905

cmack@roberson.org